Hello all orchestra families....again☺

We have once again been invited to have a performance and clinic with top Bay Area professionals at the state of the art Kinkade Theater at Archbishop Mitty High School. The festival is designed to encourage excellence in performance, learning through community, clinics that have time to focus on process and an emphasis on learning, not ranking. Under the leadership of the Visual and Performing Arts staff at Mitty, this festival is supporting the trend of depth in understanding and uses the model of one group performing while the others watch and learn from the performers and then from the clinician. It is high-end learning and helps to develop the ability to evaluate and assess as well as learning to take constructive criticism in a public forum. Feel free to contact me with any questions that you might have – scottkrijnen@yahoo.com
