

Redwood Intermediate Band & Intermediate Orchestra Field Trip

San Francisco Symphony

Friday, November 1

We're excited to bring our students to the San Francisco Symphony on Friday, November 1! Below you can find some general information for our afternoon and evening up along the peninsula. Our schedule, chaperone groups, and bus lists can be found on the following pages.

What's for dinner?

We've ordered Ike's sandwiches for you! Your sandwich will be the one that you selected during initial trip registration. If you forgot what you chose, don't worry! We'll share a list with your name and your order closer to our field trip day so that you can remember. Modifications have been made for those of you who let us know that you are gluten-free or lactose intolerant. We will also have bottles of water, bags of chips, and cookies.

What do I wear?

Consider your attendance to the symphony and/or any live professional performance similar to attending a dinner at a fairly nice restaurant. You'll see audience members wearing anything from khakis to cocktail dresses, but you want to aim to wear something along the lines of business clothes or slightly dressy casual clothes (a collared shirt or blouse is always a good choice). Mr. Jow, for example, will be wearing khaki pants with either an untucked polo shirt or a button-up short sleeve shirt. Also remember that we'll be having dinner at a park beforehand, so a warm jacket is also recommended!

Can I use my phone?

Not during the actual show! But, you are welcome to use your phone before the music starts and after the performance ends. Be sure to put it on silent (no vibration, either!) or turn it off during the actual show.

When should I applaud?

During a regular performance, you would want to clap only at the end of a full work (for example, after all of the movements of a symphony are performed, but not in between each movement). For this performance, you just need to clap at the very end. If you're ever unsure, just wait to hear if and when lots of other people clap, then join in!

Will there be food to purchase at Davies Symphony Hall?

There will be food and snacks, though you will need to stay with your chaperone at all times, including trips to the food line. Remember - you'll have a full size Ike's sandwich for dinner beforehand, though, so we don't expect that you'll be too hungry anyway!

Anything else that I should know?

As representatives of Saratoga, Redwood Middle School, and our music program, you are expected to carry yourselves with responsibility, respect, class, and gratitude at all times. This includes listening to all instructions from your teachers and chaperones, using "please" and "thank you" as common words in your vocabulary with everyone that you interact with, carefully following our schedule, and prioritizing the needs of the group over your own impulses.
