

Hello ColorGuard!

We hope that you have all enjoyed the last few months and the entirety of our Marching Band season! We have grown so much and both of us have loved working with all of you to improve upon old skills and learn lots of new ones, make new friends and keep old ones, try new things and not be afraid to make mistakes!

We have made it to the part of the year where things all change again. We now embark on what we like to call our "Winter Guard" Season. To match the weather we move our performances and practices indoors and we move to learn a new performance piece that is a combination of equipment (flag, air blade and maybe more) and dance. This is performed on a stage setting instead of marching down a street and to recorded music instead of our marching band. We hope that you are all ready for a new challenge!

There will be lots more information to come as we go through the season, but for now I want to introduce our next season to you and remind you of our calendar.

Our Winter Guard Season will be kicked off on Saturday December 15th from 10am-3pm in the Redwood MultiPurpose Room.

Our rehearsal calendar is as follows (times to be announced closer to the dates):

Saturday December 15 from 10am-3pm
Saturday January 12 from 9:00am-4:30pm
Saturday January 26
Saturday March 9
Saturday March 23

We will perform at various events including Disneyland, Pancake Breakfast and the Spring Concert series. If you do not plan on travelling to Disneyland with the group please let me know ASAP so we can plan accordingly (as this will affect our choreographing).

Costume details, any possible seasonal costs and music will be announced after the winter break.

If you have any questions please let us or Mr. Jow know (as always).

We hope you all have a great holiday season, and thank you so much for a fabulous marching season!

Ms. Conway and Ms. Cuellar
